

FHL Orson Frost

∞
Sadie Cummins
daur of John J. "
+ Norma Burke

Jack Frost

∞
Miranda Smith Po
M

FHL
for FBS on

Sadie Matilda
Cummings 1878
∞
Orson Peter Frost

vicissitudes in life that you have occasion even to be tempted and like to win you to his side.
be strong in the gospel, and the
to withstand all such temptations,

and as you delve deeply into the of a June night. An excited Chi-or even the tragic fire of 1898.

refused to surrender to disasters of inverted but undivided; they main-satisfied that the ghost had been would least and the Chinese could for the departing spirit. When the fues as gifts of chickens, candies, and cemetery where local kiddies would in with a certain music and read pro-

Donald T. Frost

Our beloved husband, father and grandfather, Donald T Frost, age 60, died April 1, 1993 in Salt Lake City.

Born February 14, 1933 in Salt Lake City to Albert James and Ellen Nielson Frost. Married Viola Gardner July 24, 1951 in Salt Lake City.

Survived by wife; daughters, Mrs. David (Linda) Fedel, Las Vegas, Nev.; Jacqueline Frost, West Valley City; son, Paul D. Frost, Salt Lake City; six grandchildren; sister, Melba Yeske, West Valley City; brother, Jack Frost. Preceded in death by granddaughter, Tammy.

Funeral services will be held Monday, 12 noon, at McDougal Funeral Home, 4330 South Redwood Road, where friends may call one hour prior. Interment, Valley View Memorial Park.

T 4/3

N 4/3

er
rship

urch,
Salt
Eu-
a.m.;
rist,
f the
Fri-
Pas-
10,
Euesti-
and

Gender References Vatican to Reject First English Trans

By David Briggs
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The new Roman Catholicism is a best seller in Spain, but a disagreement about gender references is keeping the English translation off U.S. bookshelves.

First due out in March, the translation was still being worked on this week. The U.S. publishers' original version